Crime Information at AESCA

Reported crime statistics are those which occurred within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Auguste Escoffier School of Culinary Arts. They include Boulder City Police jurisdiction on city streets or public property immediately adjacent to the classrooms.

Crime statistics concerning surrounding locations are available at the Boulder City Police Department.

Summary of the Jeanne Clery Act

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act is the landmark federal law, originally known as the Campus Security Act, which requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses.

Because the law is tied to participation in federal student financial aid programs it applies to most institutions of higher education both public and private. It is enforced by the U.S. Department of Education.

The “Clery Act” is named in memory of 19- year old Lehigh University freshman Jeanne Ann Clery who was raped and murdered while asleep in her residence hall room on April 5, 1986.

The law was amended in 1992 to add a requirement that schools afford the victims of campus sexual assault certain basic rights, and was amended again in 1998 to expand the reporting requirements. The 1998 amendments also formally named the law in memory of Jeanne Clery. The law was amended in 2000 to require schools beginning in 2003 to notify the campus community about where public “Megan’s Law” information about registered sex offenders on campus could be obtained.

Contact the Campus Director or Registrar at 720-457-9612 immediately to report any type of sexual harassment or incident.
